Program Information

Registration And Tuition
Tuition for the conference is $450. If you are a University Of Arizona Law School Alumnus tuition is $350. If you are an attorney, and your law firm is a The Bank of the West customer or a Huntington bank customer, the tuition is $350. If you are a member of the judiciary, an academic, a federal or state employee, or a lawyer 65 years of age or older, the tuition is $175. Tuition includes all sessions, an extensive manual of written materials distributed at the conference, Friday’s continental breakfast and luncheon. Please register in advance to be assured of printed materials. Registrations are transferable within law firms, but only one course manual per registration will be distributed. If you are unable to attend the conference you may purchase a course manual for $100, subject to availability.

Hotel Accommodations
As a conference registrant, you may take advantage of a special hotel rate at the Boca Raton Resort & Club, on Thursday, April 3 and Friday, April 4, 2014. To make reservations, call 1-888-557-6375. Special accommodations have been set aside at: Run of Beach Club—$399 per night single/double, Beach Club Sky Deck—$439 per night single/double or One Bedroom Ocean Vista—$649 per night single/double. In order to access these blocked rooms and rates, the attendees must indicate that they are attending the 2014 Annual ILEP Meeting. Rooms are very limited. Please book your reservation early to ensure availability. Hotel web site: www.bocaresort.com.

Continuing Legal Education
As a program of the University Of Arizona Law School, the conference will be recognized for CLE credit in most states, including California, Delaware, Florida, Missouri, Nevada, New York and Pennsylvania. Upon request, University Of Arizona Law School and ILEP will provide certification to apply for credit from other states. Estimated credit is 9 hours based on a 50-minute credit hour, and 8 hours based on a 60-minute credit hour. For more information about the conference, please contact Laura Stein at (215) 988-9546 or email her at laurasteinesq@yahoo.com.
